DEMOCRATS WELCOME TO SEVEN.

Twenty Kentucky Legislators Take Refuge in Ohio—Republican Plans.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 5.—Twenty Democratic members of the General Assembly of Kentucky are registered at hotels in this city today awaiting instructions from their friends as to how to proceed in their battle with the seceding members of the legislature. They are wearing mourning badges on the lapels of their coats. Senator J. C. Furnish said:

"We fear that if we cross the river we will be seized by the militia and sent to London."

Seventeen representatives are quartered at the Madison Square Hotel, and three at the Union House. They refuse to state who is designated to act for them in the capacity of a leader in the event of a breakdown in the ranks. They are to London they replied.

It is estimated that the cost of maintaining these legislators for the next thirty days will be $10 to $15 a day for each.

None of the Democratic legislators was willing to discuss the situation. They were given a telegram received from Gov. Taylor assuring them that they would not be molested, and that they would be given the same guarantees nothing. Taylor says he will do all in his power to prevent their arrest. If we sent to London we would be seized by the militia," said Taylor's assurance.

LEGISLATION. There are now thirty-five members of the Legislature here, all Republicans save one anti-seceder. Democratic members are expected to be about thirty, and the Republicans, six Senators and twelve Representatives, are expected to be here before the end of the week. The members of the House of the Republican leaders, who are close to Gov. Taylor, and thought that the Republicans were to meet on Monday day to day until the Democrats came to London, and if the latter persisted in their refusal to meet, the Republicans would keep on meeting and continuing until the remaining thirty-four days of the session.

The Republicans hold that the Speaker of the House did not call the meeting of the House, and that the meeting was illegal. Gov. Taylor was shot and that therefore the action of the Democrats in meeting in secret and in defiance of the law was a violation of the law. They say that Gov. Taylor will pay no attention to the action of the seceding members of the Kentucky courts, and that he will continue to pay no attention to them. In discussing the matter to-day he said:

"If Gov. Taylor should give up the office he would be almost certain to be shot down by the militia. He would be a martyr, and he ought to keep the office to which the people have elected him and his associates."

Gov. Taylor's cabinet consists of five men, ninety strong, came here to-day to preserve the peace. They were without uniforms upon their arrival, and they were met by a crowd of men wearing new uniforms and carrying the new flag. They were met by a crowd of men, General Colver. The uniforms and rifles were shipped here two weeks ago. Two hundred men were sent to the front line of the war.

CONFERENCES. The Republican members of the General Assembly are expected to meet at the Court House. The caucus was called to order by the chairman, and the members decided to meet there as it is assumed that the regular officers will be on hand to meet and to receive the members of the assembly. It is assumed that these officers do not come here, but at another caucus, which has been called for to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

A committee from the Senate and House was appointed to draft resolutions on the death of President Lincoln. The committee is expected to report to the Senate, as the Senate, as Lewis G. Marshall, not to be here.

ANTI-CLERICAL MAN LOSES HIS JOB.

Collector Edman Displaced Deputy Grosse and Fights in Coway.

FREDERICK W. GROSSE, who has been Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue for the Third New York district under Collector Ferdinand Edman, announced to his friends yesterday that Mr. Edman on Saturday asked for his resignation and got it. Mr. Grosse said for his resignation. He thinks that he has lost his office, his position to the continued leadership of Frederick A. Edman, who is the Twenty-fifth Assembly district.

Mr. Grosse is a native of New York City, a lawyer, and a member of the Executive Council of the Madison Square Republican Club, to which all belong. The Madison Square Club is known as the Raine Club, and at one time Mr. Edman was a member of the club. Mr. Coway once Mr. Edman on his duty yesterday.

day, Thursday, after the hearing on the tax bill introduced by the Stranahan Special Committee. There appears to be a disposition to consider this bill favorably, and if the committee's bill is acted upon this session this bill will come in for a great deal of attention. Mr. Reed says he has been considering this bill for some time, and he denies the statement that it is aimed at thrift. On the contrary, he says, it is designed solely to get at the tax dodgers. He reasons that of the 1,500,000 savings bank depositors in this state, 1,500,000 will not be affected. He says it will be found that that number have deposited under $1,000, while the others have deposits up to the limit, and that, too, in several banks, so that they avoid paying taxes by not investing their money in real estate or other taxable property.

Senator Ford to-night introduced a bill regulating the hours of duty of firemen in New York city and Buffalo. The bill provides that firemen shall be divided into two platoons, one to perform day and the other night service. The hours of day service shall not exceed ten, commencing not before 8 A. M. and ending not later than 6 P. M. The hours of night service shall not exceed fourteen, commencing not before 6 P. M. and ending not later than 8 A. M., except that in case of riot or serious conflagration the Fire Commissioner or Board of Fire Commissioners shall have full discretion to assign all of the members of the department Glorious weather this! One day, the heaviest of Winter coats; the next, no coat at all; a porous plaster the third; and a doctor's bill the fourth.

Our stores, like watches, are regulated to both heat and cold.

To-day's best buy for cold is one of these immortelle frieze ulsters or reliable kersey overcoats at $15.

Modern Plumbing.

Twenty years ago all Plumbing Appliances were primitive and unsightly. As we make them now they are so artistic as to form a conspicuous part of the "House Beautiful." Our Show Rooms or our pamphlet "Modern Plumbing" tell the story.

one of the largest clubs in eastern Pennsylvania, have sent an application to the N. C. for membership. This club last year held a successful two days' race meet. It has on its roster some of the fifth and sixth grade regiment athletic associations of Buffalo. It also sent in applications for membership as well as letters for permits for indoor races.

The annual report of Secretary Benjamin Anchel of the Associated Cycling Clubs Long Island shows that the organization has net membership gain of four clubs during 1935. Seven new clubs were admitted, five were dropped and one resigned. The present membership is thirty-one clubs. The report states that much progress is being made in states that obtain no credit through a Green Card system of Brooklyn to the Caymans of Queens county. The report further states frankly that the organization within the last year has been "in a state of collapse." The Bridge League it was convinced that there was no solution to the problem of the New York State.

The report that a movement is on foot to amalgamate the bicycle interests of the country and the automobile in one gigantic trust has been denied. It is again in circulation. President Morsels of the A. B. C. W. represents the present committee as being satisfied yesterday that there was nothing in it. As far as the A. B. C. is concerned, it dismisses the matter briefly by characterizing it as "a dream."

Fifteen States have received copies of the cycle path law of New York, and bills are being introduced in the pattern of the one now in force in this State.

If Coffee
agrees with you stick to it.

If not,
use
Postum Food Coffee
as thousands of brain workers do.

"Coffee used to give me a sick headache occasionally, and the coffee habit was fixed that if I quit for a day, a headache would follow. I was thus between two fires, and it was headache and sickness either way.

"Finally, I was pushed to a point where I concluded to give up coffee altogether and try Postum Cereal Food Coffee. For a morning I stood the headache caused by a lack of coffee, but after a day but in three days I began to feel better, and in a right road, and since that time I have been getting better and stronger steadily.

"One can hardly realize the pleasure it is to feel well again, and yet I have no delicious cup of Postum regular coffee, which tastes like coffee, looks like coffee, and yet gives me true strength and health. Mrs. B., 608 Croton Sp. Syracuse, N. Y., says: 'Postum Food Coffee was recommended to me for rheumatism and my physician. He will not allow the use of common coffee. He says that Postum is strengthening and beneficial to the system under acute rheumatic suffering. I find it most excellent.

"Professor DuVall of the Syracuse University says: 'I cannot drink coffee; it has a strengthening influence on the brain and nerve work.' Mr. Williams says: 'Coffee produces dizziness, dullness and nausea, with me. I use, and much prefer, Postum Food Coffee, which gives strength and a true healthy condition.' Please do not use any name in public.

Respectfully, Mrs. E. J. ...
